		Merchandising store. It has been painted and sign written at Arnotts own garage workshop with all the original-coloured paint and design ,same as the famous red trucks we used to see on the road's delivering biscuits to store. The purpose of the Truck was to use it for promotional displays in store which were called Spectaculars. The Truck would sit on a turn table on top of a pedestal surrounded by 1000s of biscuits. It was on display in many stores within the NSW Metro area. This is one of a kind. An early Albion Truck was also made for the same purpose.
